NEGOTIATED SERVICE AGREEMENT

Docket No. CP2012-57

MOTION OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE FOR TEMPORARY RELIEF
(September 16, 2015)

In PRC Order No. 85, the Commission noted that it “stands ready to act quickly on requests for temporary relief based on extenuating circumstances” that threaten to interrupt the provision of rates to a customer as a result of the regulatory process and the statutory requirement of 39 U.S.C. § 3632(b)(3).<sup>1</sup> The customer whose competitive product rates were established in this docket wishes to renew its commitment to utilizing Priority Mail for the next year at negotiated rates. By the terms of the contract filed in this docket, the current rates will expire on September 24, 2015.

The Postal Service and the customer have been working cooperatively to reach a new agreement, which would have avoided any interruption in the Postal Service’s ability to provide this customer access to negotiated rates. However, because of extenuating circumstances, the Postal Service and the customer were unable to reach an agreement on the terms of the new contract in time for the Postal Service to file the new agreement 15 days prior to the intended effective date. Nevertheless, the Postal Service expects to have a new agreement signed within the next week and plans to file it with the Commission soon thereafter. Yet because of the timing of the regulatory process, there will be a window between the expiration of the existing contract in this docket and the effective date of the new contract, while the Commission completes its review. Thus, the customer now faces the prospect of an interruption in its access to negotiated rates as a result of the processes that it must participate in when it does business with the Postal Service, rather than with one of the Postal Service's competitors.

To avoid this result, the Postal Service respectfully requests that the Commission grant an extension to allow the existing contract to remain in effect for thirty (30) additional days. Thus the proposed extension would only last for a finite and relatively short period of time. In conclusion, for the reasons discussed above, and in consideration of the customers' business continuity, the Postal Service hereby moves for temporary relief to allow the existing contract to remain on the competitive products list for thirty additional days.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
